Jackson Woman Charged in Shooting

Jackson police responded to the area of Garneal and Mount Street at about 5:15 p.m. today after receiving a call of a female that had been struck by a vehicle and shots fired. Tiki Hobson, age 29 of Jackson, was found lying in the street.

Based upon the investigation, Marquenta Glidwell, age 18 of Brownsville, and Ashley Reid age 18 of Jackson, were together. They drove to the area of Garneal and Mount Street. Ms. Glidwell was sitting in the driver's seat of her vehicle when she was confronted by Ms. Hobson. Ms. Hobson and Ms. Reid are acquaintances. Ms. Reid got out of the vehicle during their argument. Ms. Hobson attempted to get into Ms. Glidwell's vehicle to assault her. Ms. Glidwell pulled off with Ms. Hobson hanging on to the hood of the vehicle. Ms. Hobson was eventually thrown from the vehicle and injured.

Ms. Reid fired shots and struck Ms. Glidwell's vehicle multiple times. Ms. Glidwell was not injured. Ms. Reid will be charged with Aggravated Assault. She will be arraigned in Jackson City Court tomorrow at 8:00 a.m. Ms. Hobson was treated and released.
